A message from Talk for Writing

Please donate to Great Ormond Street Hospital Children’s Charity if you use this resource.

Dear Teacher/Parent/Carer,

Welcome to the third batch of home-school unit booklets!

The first two batches of units have reached hundreds of thousands of children and the positive feedback has been overwhelming.

The units are intended to be used with online support by class teachers and by parents at home. They are produced by unpaid volunteers who are giving their time to help teachers, families and children while the schools are closed and we want to use the units to help an extremely good cause.

We are asking for voluntary contributions to Great Ormond Street Hospital of:

• £5 per year group unit
  Schools using or sending the link to a unit to their pupils

• £2 per unit
  Parents using a unit with their child, if they can afford to do so

Every single penny raised will go directly to Great Ormond Street Hospital. Due to Covid-19, the hospital has increased its intensive care capacity to make sure they have room for some of the UK’s most seriously ill children. They need support now more than ever to give these children a better future.

I hope you enjoy using the unit. Thank you for your support.

With best wishes,

Hello!
I’m Mouse!
Let’s have a learning adventure.
Dear Parent/Carer

Thank you for taking the time to support your child with their learning. This booklet is designed to inspire and support your child to develop skills and confidence in speaking, reading and writing.

Through the world of Mouse’s adventures, your child will be invited to explore a number of engaging, fun and purposeful activities. In this booklet, you will see 8 different types of learning activities:

- Let’s read together
- Let’s talk
- Rhyme time
- Ladybird Words
- Let’s pretend
- Ready, steady, write
- Out and about
- Let’s get creative

Each activity is explained by Mouse and has been designed so that you can support your child. For example, there will be shared reading, discussion and writing. On some of the pages you will see a box like this:

Information boxes like this will give you some tips on supporting the activity.

At the end of the booklet, please support your child to rate and comment on how they got on with their learning and add your comments too.

ENJOY!
Mouse’s Adventures

Once upon a time, there was a boy called Rafa who lived with his Grandma in a big city. Every day, Rafa played football and built Lego but, most of all, he played with Mouse.

Rafa’s Grandma gave Mouse to him on the day that he was born and Rafa loved him. Whenever anyone asked Rafa why his friend was just called Mouse, Rafa would smile and say, “Well, he’s just so … mousey!”

On Monday, Rafa woke up, turned over in bed and reached for Mouse, but Mouse wasn’t there. “Oh bother!” said Rafa. “He’s been on an adventure again.” So, Rafa looked here, he looked there, he looked everywhere and, finally, he found him on his bedroom shelf in amongst the Lego models. “What have you been up to?” asked Rafa, picking Mouse up and snuggling his soft ears. “We-e-e-ll,” said Mouse, “I was having a lovely time playing in the Lego until I got trapped by an evil robot!”

On Tuesday, Rafa woke up, turned over in bed and reached for Mouse, but Mouse wasn’t there. “Oh bother!” said Rafa. “He’s been on an adventure again.” So, Rafa looked here, he looked there, he looked everywhere and, finally, he found him in the lounge, hanging from the curtain rail. “What have you been up to?” asked Rafa, picking Mouse up and stroking his fluffy tail. “We-e-e-ll,” said Mouse, “I was having a lovely time climbing the curtains until I slipped! Lucky I’ve got a super strong tail!”
On Wednesday, Rafa woke up, turned over in bed and reached for Mouse, but Mouse wasn’t there. “Oh bother!” said Rafa. “He’s been on an adventure again.” So, Rafa looked here, he looked there, he looked everywhere and, finally, he found him in the kitchen cupboard, covered in flour. “What have you been up to?” asked Rafa, picking Mouse up and dusting him down. “We-e-e-ll,” said Mouse, “I was having a lovely time looking for treats until a big, white cloud landed on me!”

On Thursday, Rafa woke up, turned over in bed and reached for Mouse, but Mouse wasn’t there. “Oh bother!” said Rafa. “He’s been on an adventure again.” So, Rafa looked here, he looked there, he looked everywhere and, finally, he found him sitting in the bath. “What have you been up to?” asked Rafa, picking Mouse up and wrapping him in a warm towel. “We-e-e-ll,” said Mouse, “I was having a lovely time sliding in the bath until the shower rained on me!”

On Friday, Rafa woke up with something warm and fluffy and orange cuddled up under his chin. “Good Morning,” said Rafa. “No adventures last night?” “We-e-e-ll,” said Mouse, “I was having a lovely time diving in the duvet waves until ... I fell fast asleep!”
Let’s talk

Talk with your child about what happened in the story. Help them to talk about:
- what they liked
- did anything surprise them?
- do they have any questions?

Jot down what they say so that you can come back to it another day.

What parts of the story did you like the most?

Did anything about the story surprise you?

Do you have any questions?
Ladybird loves words! She has chosen some words from the story. Can you say each word together and match it to the right picture?

- city
- fluffy
- duvet
- warm
- strong
Let's pretend

★ Can you pretend that one of your toys is the character in the story? Listen while a little bit of the story is read to you. Can you remember what Mouse said? What would your character say?

He found him on his bedroom shelf in amongst the Lego models.

He found him in the lounge, hanging from the curtain rail.

He found him in the kitchen cupboard, covered in flour.

He found him sitting in the bath.

Rhymes are an important part of early learning. Keep the learning fun - chant together, sing together, do the actions together, clap the rhythm together.

Hickory, dickory, dock,
The mouse ran up the clock.
The clock struck one,
The mouse ran down,
Hickory, dickory, dock.
★ I have been having some more adventures in my house and outside. Can you see where I have been and what I have been doing?
★ Can you take one of your toys on an adventure like mine? Ask your helper to take some photographs for you just like I did.
Sequencing things in the right order is an important skill. Help your child to retell Mouse's adventure in order using the time words on the story path. Support them to write in the correct words.

One morning, Mouse went on another adventure.

First, he had a yummy _______.

Then, he hid in the _______.

After that, he played a _______ on the recorder.

Next, he did some _______ in the garden.

Then he did some _______.

Finally, he made himself a jam _______ to enjoy. Yum!
Let's get creative

★ Time to stick the photographs of your toy's adventure on the story path and tell their adventure story. If you haven't got photographs, you can draw the pictures instead.
This is one of my favourite poems. It’s called Ice Lolly and was written by Pie Corbett. Read it together a couple of times. See if you can clap along with the rhythm too.

Ice Lolly

Red rocket on a stick.
If it shines, lick it quick.

Round the edges, on the top, round the bottom, do not stop.

Suck the lolly. Lick your lips. Lick the sides as it drips off the stick - quick, quick, lick, lick - Red rocket on a stick.

Rainbows are special, aren’t they? Guess what I used to paint my rainbow rocket ice lolly picture? There’s a clue in this drawing!
Let’s get creative

★ Have a go at a fingerprint painting. Here is a picture frame for your rainbow ice lolly painting.
Ladybird picked three action words from our story. Can you write these words with your finger in a feely tray?

- looking
- climbing
- stroking
Dear Mouse

What an adventure I had at the weekend! I had been flying for a very long time and I was exhausted. So, I had to make an emergency landing. Look what I landed on … a hedgehog made of FRUIT! Lucky me! I think it would be fun for you to make one.

What you need:
• a large potato
• some tin foil
• some cocktail sticks
• an apple
• a banana
• some grapes or blueberries
• some tomatoes
• a plate

What you do:
1. Cover the potato with the tin foil.
2. Chop the fruit into small pieces (ask your helper to help).
3. Push each piece of fruit onto a cocktail stick.
4. Push the cocktail sticks into the potato until it looks like a hedgehog.
5. Serve it on a plate.

Now you can enjoy a healthy treat! Yum!

Your busy friend

Bee
Let’s get creative

★ Can you make a fruit hedgehog just like the one Bee landed on?
Out and about

Get hunting with your child, both inside and outside if possible. Support your child to tick off anything they spot and add any others they find to the checklist.

★ My favourite colours are green, brown and orange. I love to go on an adventure to spot things that are these colours. I wonder how many you will find …

I found …

I also found …
I love writing riddles about my favourite animals. Can you guess what they are?

My body is red and shiny. Look closely - I’m tiny. On my back I have spots. Little black dots. You may see me flutter by but I’m not a butterfly!

What am I?
I am very tall.
I have a long neck.
I am usually yellow and brown.
I eat leaves from tall trees.
My tongue is blue!

What am I?
★ Have a go at making up your own animal riddle. If you need some help to write it down, ask your helper. Have a go at a few words yourself though!

Ladybird has been thinking about the different parts of a plant. Can you label this one with the right words? She has written all the words at the bottom of the page to help you.

- petals
- stem
- leaf
- roots
I Had a Little Nut Tree

I had a little nut tree;
Nothing would it bear
But a silver nutmeg
And a golden pear.
The King of Spain’s daughter
Came to visit me,
And all for the sake of
My little nut tree.
I skipped over water,
I danced over sea,
And all the birds in the air
Couldn’t catch me.
Dear Mouse,

I’ve been out on another flying adventure. I landed on lots of interesting things.

Some of them were lovely to land on and some were not! I liked the things that were dry, smooth or soft but I did not like the ones that were wet, prickly or hard.

Have a look at the things I landed on. Can you write the correct word beside each one?

Have fun!

From your friend
Bee
Ready steady write

wet  dry  soft  hard  prickly  smooth
Let's get creative

★ I love mixing colours together to make a new colour. Can you mix each of these two colours together, paint a splodge in the box and write the name of the new colour underneath it?

Provide your child with the two colours shown each time and let them combine to make the new colour.
Let's get creative

★ Which colour did you make that you could use to paint me? Have a go!
I Had a Little Monkey

I had a little monkey,
I called him Little Jim,
I put him in a bathtub,
To see if he could swim.

He drank up all the water,
He ate up all the soap,
He lay down on the bathmat,
Blowing bubbles from his throat.

“Mummy, mummy, I feel ill,
Call the doctor down the hill.”
In came the doctor, in came the nurse,
In came the lady with the alligator purse.

“He’s naughty,” said the doctor.
“He’s wicked,” said the nurse.
“Hiccups!” said the lady with the alligator purse.

Out went the doctor,
Out went the nurse,
Out went the lady with the alligator purse.
I hope you had a great time learning with me. Don’t forget to write a message on the next page.
So, how did you get on? Draw a circle round one of the faces.

The activities I liked best were ____________________
