Dear Teacher/Parent/Carer,

Welcome to batch four of our home-school English units.

We are continuing to receive huge amounts of positive feedback from teachers, parents and children about our units which have been downloaded tens of thousands of times.

If these booklets are used at home, we expect teachers to support children through their home-school links. The booklets are also ideal for in school ‘bubble’ sessions.

We want to use this batch of units to raise money for the NSPCC. Sadly, having to spend time in enforced isolation during Covid-19 will have put many children at greater risk of abuse and neglect. The NSPCC website provides useful guidance here. We are therefore asking for voluntary contributions of:

• £5 per year group unit
  Schools using or sending the link to a unit to their pupils

• £2 per unit
  Parents using a unit with their child, if they can afford to do so

The above amounts are recommendations only. If you are finding the units of use and are able to donate more, please do!

DONATE HERE
www.justgiving.com/fundraising/tfw-nspcc

A huge thank you for all your donations so far. We are pleased to be able to provide the units as free downloads, whilst also using them to support good causes.

We hope you enjoy this batch of units as much as the previous ones.

With best wishes,

Pie Corbett

Monsters

A workbook
by James Walker
World famous monster expert Professor Behemoth is putting together a Monsterology of different types of monsters and beasts. He has spent years researching all sorts of weird and wonderful monsters and has a wide variety for his encyclopedia. Your job, in this booklet, is to provide the professor with another entry for his book; you’ll have to use your imagination unless you have actually seen a monster!

Information with a touch of ‘faction’

In this workbook, we are going to be writing an information text about a made-up monster or beast. Even though this is a non-fiction genre of writing, we can still be inventive and creative. I like calling it FACTION when teaching it (the form fits information about facts but the content is fiction).

To get us started, here is a model of a fictional information text about swamp monsters. As you are listening, you might want to think about which type of monster you will write about. Have a read below and then listen to me read it aloud here: https://soundcloud.com/talkforwriting/swamp/s-28ED2KJCK6n
Swamp Monsters

Do you ever wonder what might be lurking in the murky swamps of our world? Rumour has it that the fabled swamp monster is not just a creature mentioned in myth and legend but it actually exists! Now is your chance to find out all that has been discovered about this unique being.

Swamp monsters are rumoured to inhabit the most remote and humid swamps of the Amazon rainforest. Living in total solitude, it is believed that there is, perhaps, only one swamp monster on our planet, making it a mystery how they reproduce. Dr Patrick Thurston - world renowned monsterologist from Bristol University - could perhaps be the only living person ever to see this magnificent creature: “You cannot believe the pure majesty of the swamp monster. They seem as if they are 'one with the swamp' living in pure harmony with their habitat.”

Swamp monsters don’t just live in swamps they resemble them. Being experts in camouflage, they are indistinguishable from their environment. Their bodies are made from this environment: limbs of gnarled branches, incredibly long fingers and glowing, iridescent hair which changes colour to match their mood. The most incredible thing about a swamp monster is that they have translucent breathing tubes meaning they can stay underwater indefinitely but continue to breathe.

Have you ever wondered what a swamp monster eats? Their diet consists of herons, rats and even alligators which they hypnotise with their ever-staring, haunting eyes. Transfixed, any animal is helpless to the swamp monster who squeezes the life from them with its lean, powerful limbs. The swamp monster's tongue has the ability to taste the air; this allows it to identify when its prey is close by.

If you are now tempted to try and spot a swamp monster, we advise extreme caution! This beautiful but deadly creature should be left in solitude to be studied only by experts trained in monsterology.
Activity 1: Match the vocabulary to its definition

You might not know all of the vocabulary that is in our model text. Don’t worry as this activity will help! Match the word to the correct definition and then check at the end of the booklet to see if you have them all right.

You could magpie some of these words and use them in your own writing later on.
Activity 2: Underlying pattern of information texts

Let’s go back to the model text. I have picked out the underlying pattern for you by boxing up the structure for you; this will help guide your writing. Remember this is just a guide and, if you are confident, you could add in extra paragraphs, different sections, diagrams etc.

Activity 3: Let’s look at the toolkit

Before we start thinking about our own ideas for our monster, we need to look closely at the text and see what writing tools/tips/tricks the author has used so we can do the same in ours. Here is a toolkit I have made for writing information texts.

The information toolkit
To report information you can ...

Hook your reader – start with questions and a top fact to encourage interest

Use technical/specific vocabulary – translucent, indistinguishable, webbed

Sound like an expert – be formal and informative

Interest your reader – fascinating facts, warning and advice

Organise your ideas – paragraphs, topic sentences, adverbials

Use evidence – a quotation from an expert, topic-based technical vocabulary
Activity 4: Formality

You might have heard your teachers talking about ‘being formal’. The best way to explain it in this type of writing is to: SOUND LIKE AN EXPERT.

Imagine you are David Attenborough narrating a TV show or your writing will feature in a non-fiction book from the library. We don’t need to make our reader laugh, persuade them or in fact give any opinion at all. Our main job is to give information as precisely as possible.

Here are two texts. Spot which is formal and which is informal!

1) Swamp monsters have a proper rancid diet. They love to eat all sorts of weird and unusual stuff like slugs - uuurrrrggghhh! Also, they glug down the dirty swamp water by the gallon!

2) It has been discovered that swamp monsters have an unusual diet. In the main, these creatures are known to consume only gastropods. In addition, they have a preference for water from their swamps as it contains essential minerals.

Which one is informal and why?
Which one is formal and why?

Now decide whether these are formal or informal sentences?

★ I really want you to come to my party – please come! formal/informal

★ Henry VII didn’t like his wife – he chopped off her head! formal/informal

★ The teacher-pleaser machine is a state-of-the-art contraption. formal/informal

★ Your presence is requested at the Queen’s celebration. formal/informal

★ At 6:00pm on the 24th December Mr Jones was arrested by the police and detained at the local police station. formal/informal

Challenge: can you re-write each sentence the other way round so the formal ones become informal and the informal ones become formal!
Activity 5: Topic sentences

You might have noticed that the model text does not have sub-headings. Instead, in Year 6, we can use TOPIC SENTENCES. These are like little introductions to the paragraph allowing you to add more detail than you would in a simple heading.

Examples from our model:

Swamp monsters don’t just live in swamps they resemble them.
This topic sentence introduces our APPEARANCE paragraph

Have you ever wondered what a swamp monster eats? This topic sentence introduces our DIET paragraph and uses another question to interest the reader.

Swamp monsters are rumoured to inhabit the most remote and humid swamps of the Amazon rainforest.
This topic sentence introduces the paragraph which is about DIFFERENT SPECIES and HABITAT.

★ Use these examples to have a go at writing some topic sentences of your own for the topics below
Topic sentences for the appearance, diet and habitat of a lion:

Topic sentences for the habitat, diet, and appearance of a swamp monster:

Topic sentences for the appearance, powers, enemies or abilities of a storm giant:
Activity 6: New ideas

Now comes the fun part! You need to write an information text about a monster beast for Professor Behemoth’s Monsterology. The choices are endless and I am sure that you already have an idea about what you might do but here are some pictures that might inspire you.
Coming up with ideas! I have given you a few ideas for what your different paragraphs could be about below and I am sure that you can think of others. Use the space to get as many ideas down as you can or use separate paper.

Activity 7: Draw your monster

To help you get a real picture of what your monster is like, have a go at sketching them.
Activity 8: Planning

Now we are going to organise our ideas into a box-up planner to help structure your writing. Remember you can pick different topics than appearance, habitat and diet and also you can have your quotation in a different section. I have left the right-hand column blank as you might want to have 2, 3, 4, 5 or 6 different sections so draw your own lines!

Activity 9: Talk your plan through

It is really important to have a good read through your plan to make sure that it makes sense. Why not read it aloud to someone in your house and see if they have any suggestions for how to improve it.

Activity 10: It’s time to write your monster report

To help you with your writing, you have lots of different things to help you:

✓ The original text about monsters
✓ The toolkit for reporting information
✓ Your ideas page
✓ Your diagram
✓ The vocabulary we learned from the model
✓ And most importantly, your plan

Draft your ideas on one piece of paper and edit it so you really like the words you have chosen. Read it through again to check spelling and punctuation and then write your final draft.
Activity 11: Draw a map of your monster’s land

One of my favourite things about reading children’s books is when you find a map right at the beginning of the land in the story. I keep referring to the map as they talk about the different locations and settings in the story. I am sure that you have done the same. I thought it would be a great idea for you to design and draw your own map of where your giant lives.

★ Step 1: draw the outline of your map
★ Step 2: fill in the landmarks: trees, rivers, boulders, mountains, volcano, cities, sea, swamps
★ Step 3: make up names for the different areas of your map
★ Step 4: stain the map to make it look old by using a used (and cool) tea bag to turn the paper brown. You don’t need to get it that wet for it to change colour
★ Step 5: When it is dry, cut or rip the edges of the paper to make it look old and worn. A small hole in the middle of the map can look great
Activity 12: Giving feedback

An important part of writing is giving feedback to the writer. Normally, in school, this is probably done by your teacher and sometimes by other children in your class. Read my paragraph of information writing underneath. Correct up any errors and then leave me some feedback based on the toolkit from earlier in the booklet. Is it formal enough? Is there a topic sentence? Is it interesting? Does it engage the reader?

Diet:

Ogres clubs there pray to death and then feast on the carcasses. Many ogres keep the bones and use them to festoon their caves; skulls being their main bone of choice! Disgusting isn’t it. Their favourite thing to eat are definitely otter or beaver cub’s which they cruelly take from their mothers.

Feedback:

Activity 13: Extension writing choices

★ You are not finished yet! There are lots of different bits of writing you could do if you are enjoying this unit:
★ Write another report about a real animal (lion, great white shark)
★ Write another report about a different beast (vampire, ogre)
★ Write a fact-file for your monster
★ Write a newspaper report about a monster on the loose
★ Write a set of Instructions for How to Trap a Monster
★ Write a discussion text like Should Monsters be Allowed to Live on Earth?
Activity 14: WANTED Poster

Imagine the monster or beast you have written about is on the loose! Design a WANTED poster calling on the public to help hunt down and capture them before it is too late. You might want to include:

★ A reward
★ Who to contact if they see the monster
★ What the monster has done – why they are dangerous
★ Where they were last spotted
Book recommendations

Below are books that I would recommend for Year 6 that feature a monster or a beast. If you have read some of them, why not do a book review?

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>A Monster Calls by Patrick Ness</th>
<th>Skellig by David Almond</th>
<th>Malamander by Thomas Taylor</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>The Wild Robot by Peter Brown</td>
<td>Fantastic Beasts by JK Rowling</td>
<td>Beowulf by Michael Morpurgo</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The Girl of Ink and Stars by Kiran Milwood Hargrave</td>
<td>The Creakers by Tom Fletcher</td>
<td>Percy Jackson and the Sea of Monster by Rick Riordan</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
